Advancing the Science and Art of Surgery Worldwide

1. NAME AND SEAT

- 1.1. A non-profit association established under the name of "International Society of Surgery (ISS) / Société Internationale de Chirurgie (SIC)" (the "Society") in accordance with Article 60 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code.
- 1.2. The Society was founded in Brussels (Belgium) on September 9, 1902. Its seat was transferred to Switzerland on January 1, 1980.
- 1.3. The official language of the Society is English.
- 1.4. The Seat of the Society within Switzerland is determined by the Council. Except as otherwise determined by the Council, the Seat is with the Administrative Office.
- 1.5. The transfer of the Seat of the Society to outside of Switzerland shall be decided by the General Assembly by the affirmative vote of a majority of two-thirds of the members present.

2. PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

- 2.1. The purpose of the Society is the advancement of the science and art of surgery, anaesthesiology, and care of the surgical patient.
- 2.2. The objectives of the Society are:
  - 2.2.1. To disseminate knowledge of the science and art of surgery and associated disciplines.
  - 2.2.2. To hold International Surgical Week (ISW), also known as the World's Congress of Surgery (the "Congress"), a biennial event where present progress and problems of interest to all surgeons, anaesthesiologists, and other physicians are presented. The Congress also offers venues for simultaneous meetings of various specialties, provided during joint meetings, presentations, panels and workshops.
  - 2.2.3. To promote and facilitate education regarding all aspects of care of the surgical patient worldwide, in association with the Integrated Societies, for promoting, coordinating and facilitating the educational activities of the Society, including regional scientific meetings and courses to be held jointly under the auspices of the Society, and the local organization.

2.2.4. To assist in providing ISS/SIC scientific sessions within other conferences of general and global interest to surgeons, anesthesiologists, and other physicians across specialties.

2.2.5. To disseminate knowledge of the science and art of surgery and associated disciplines through the regular publication of the World Journal of Surgery (the "Journal"), the official organ of the Society, as well as through the publication of books, manuals and newsletters.

3. MEMBERSHIP

- 3.1. All persons and entities who identify themselves with the purpose and the objectives of the Society may apply for membership.
- 3.2. Subject to the terms of this Constitution, applicable criteria for membership shall be determined as set forth in the Internal Rules (as defined below).
- 3.3. The Internal Rules shall define the membership categories and identify the rights and duties of the members and the procedures for the acquisition and loss of membership.
- 3.4. Individual Members: Medical doctors or non-medical scientists who have received academic training in, and who are, or have been, engaged as their main professional endeavor in a career involving a recognized field of surgery, anaesthesiology, or life science including the care of the critically ill, research or education.
